

Homeschool Wildlife Series

Mill Mountain Zoo offers a 3 week series of classes designed just for homeschool groups. Our Wildlife Series is the perfect solution for groups looking for further life-science enrichment. We offer 2 separate programs to choose from. One is designed for grades K-4, and the other is for grades 5-8. Each 90 minute to 2 hour class can be taught at your location or at Mill Mountain Zoo. Students may sign up for all 3 parts of the series or take individual sessions, so as to best suit their interests and studies. Each class session covers life-science SOL's, contains an activity and a personal encounter with Mill Mountain Zoo Education Animal Ambassadors.

General Information:

- A minimum of 10 students and a maximum of 20 are required.
- Series is available throughout the entire S.W. Virginia Region.
- Lecture, discussion and animal encounter are all included in the price.
- Any materials, activities and take-homes are also included.
- Lessons are $175 each.
- Admission to Zoo is included in tuition for onsite lessons.
- Mileage charge is also added for any offsite locations over 20 miles away. Mileage charged is an additional $.65 for each mile travelled both ways over a 20 mile radius.

Requirements:

- A contact coordinator to serve as the group's organizer, student recruiter and registrar
- An indoor area large enough to conduct class if offsite
- One onsite adult to attend each class
- Payment should be collected ahead of time and everyone paid for together.

Please fill out the registration form below and email, fax or mail to the Mill Mountain Zoo Education Department. We will contact you after receipt to work out the dates and times for scheduling.
